

Information and Booking Procedure for Rottnest Island Authority

The Stables House - Conservation Centre

The Stables House, attractively sited by the shore of Lake Herschel is a non-commercial accommodation facility managed by the Rottnest Island Authority (RIA) for the purpose of housing conservation volunteers, visiting researchers and university student groups whilst conducting fieldwork on the island.

The Stables House Conservation Centre is able to accommodate a maximum of 12 people within the facility, over 4 bedrooms.

- Room A
- Room B
- Room C
- Room D

It is fully self-contained, with a large open plan kitchen/dining/workspace area including all cooking equipment and utensils, gas cooker, fridge/freezers and dishwasher. There is one bathroom with toilet and shower, laundry and drying facilities are also available. Linen is supplied. There is hanging space for washing in the outside area.

Please note that The Stables House is strictly for the use of people over 18 only, and is not for personal use under any circumstances

Certain times of the year will incur a higher usage of The Stables House by groups, e.g. Birdlife WA or university student groups.

Contractors working for the RIA may also use the facility if there is availability.

Please leave as much time as possible for your booking, especially in the case of large groups. Demand can be high for this facility at certain times of the year.
